What we do at Age Scotland

Our aim is to make Scotland the best place in the world to live in later life. We focus on three things that matter:

We help older people be as well as they can be so they can lead an independent life, in good health and feeling secure.

We promote positive views of ageing and later life so that older people are included, valued and celebrated in society.

We tackle loneliness and isolation by helping older people feel better connected to communities that are important to them.

Your legacy will help us deliver vital friendship, support and advice to older people across Scotland, and enable local community groups to thrive in the years ahead.

"...these calls bring a little light into my week. You have all been so kind to me."

Leaving a gift

All gifts left in Wills will be spent delivering our services in Scotland.

To include a gift in your Will to Age Scotland, all you need to give your solicitor is our name, address and registered charity number:

Age Scotland
Causewayside House,
160 Causewayside,
